RAIC Promoting Equity and Justice Resource Guide

The dialogue around justice, equity, diversity, and inclusion is growing as we come to understand the impact of intended and unintended oppression. To assist in the continuation of this work, a Resource Guide of references has been created.

The purpose of this resource guide is to share examples of publications involving justice, equity, diversity, and inclusion. It will act as a repository of various sources in order to provide examples for everyday use or for additional learning.

This list of references is not exhaustive and should be considered a living document that can be continually edited and updated.

This resource was prepared by the RAIC Promoting Equity and Justice Advisory Committee.

The committee welcomes and invites suggestions as it continues to develop and expand this resource.

Please send any suggestions to PEJ@raic.org
