FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
OCTOBER 8, 2019

The best in professional design is featured as part of Saskatchewan Design Week

REGINA AND SASKATOON, SK - Saskatchewan Design Week returns to the province during the week of October 18th-25th with a series of great events highlighting professional design. The biennial event, organized by the Design Council of Saskatchewan, invites the public to learn about the different areas of design through a series of free lectures, lunch+learns, tours and other design themed events in Regina and Saskatoon.

An excellent lineup of speakers will be participating in this year's event including:

- Deirdre Harris, Senior Associate Architect and Landscape Designer at DNCA Architects
- Graeme Zirk, an Illustrator, Artist and Graphic Designer with absolutely nothing to lose
- Jason Thorne, who in his role as General Manager of Planning and Economic Development has helped lead and urban renaissance for the City of Hamilton
- Pat Hanson, founding Partner of gh3* who's award winning architectural work includes Canada's first chemical free outdoor pool
- Sarah Gajadhar, System's Engineer of world class astronomical observatories and telescopes, and
- Stanley Sun, Interior Designer at Mason Studio, an award winning design firm recently shortlisted for a World of Interiors Award.

The week concludes with the 2019 Premier's Awards of Excellence in Design Gala, recognizing great design work completed right here in our province.

The full schedule of events can be found at designcouncil.sk.ca/events
