

MEMBERSHIP FOR A STRONGER PROFESSION

Education & practice support

Members receive discounts and exclusive offers on an innovative, interactive, and robust portfolio of Continuing Education programming. We are your partners at every stage of your career with courses, content, and offers tailored to a variety of career levels.

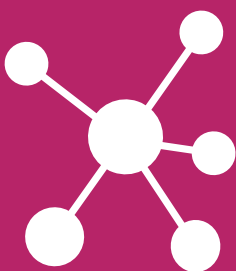

Amplified voice

Pulse surveys, continued advocacy work, and community and legislative consultation have become pillars at the fore-front of our organization, supporting members and listening to their unique experiences of practicing in the built environment.

Leadership

Lead the way at every level of your professional practice through volunteer opportunities with provincial chapters, committees, and task forces.

Networking

Connect with your colleagues and like-minded industry professionals across the country through local Chapters, events, workshops and through RAIC Connects, an engaging digital space designed for members to professionally network no matter where they are located.

Visibility & credibility

Our internationally recognized Honours & Awards program showcases Canadian architectural excellence. As a member, you carry the abbreviation MRAIC, a highly respected distinction in the profession.

Discounts

Your membership includes an extensive list of offers with our affiliates and partners and free webinars through our practice resource series.
